

State of Connecticut, Judicial Branch

PROCEDURE TO OBTAIN PERMISSION TO POSSESS CERTAIN ELECTRONIC DEVICES IN COURT FACILITIES FOR ATTORNEYS IN POSSESSION OF CBA PHOTO ID CARD

The Judicial Branch of the State of Connecticut is implementing a process to enable attorneys in good standing to acquire a Judicial Branch sticker to affix to a CBA photo ID card for purposes of implementing Pr. Bk. sec. 1-10 (b). To obtain a sticker:

1. Download and sign the “Attorney Agreement” certifying that you will relinquish the ID card if you are ever suspended, disbarred, resign or are no longer be in good standing or eligible to practice law in the State of Connecticut or if otherwise deemed to be warranted by the Chief Court Administrator.
2. Download and complete the “Mailing Address Form” which will be used to mail a sticker to your firm/office. Your juris number, name and complete address are required on the form to assure timely issuance of the sticker.
3. A clear photocopy of both sides of your current CBA Attorney Photo ID Card must be provided for identification purposes.

Upon receipt of the above three items, your juris number will be verified, along with a determination of whether you are in good standing as defined by Practice Book § 2-65 (“An attorney is in good standing in this state if the attorney has been admitted to the bar of this state, has registered with the statewide grievance committee in compliance with Section 2-27 (d), and is not under suspension, on inactive status, disbarred, or resigned from the bar.”)

You should receive your sticker in one to three weeks.
